

Master of Contemporary Education Te Wai Pounamu Discovery Discount and Te Ika-a-Māui Discount

Terms and Conditions

1. Te Wai Pounamu Discovery Discount is $2000 + GST as a partial waiver from the total fees of Parts 2 and 3 of the Master of Contemporary Education, for students who, at the time of enrolment, are based in the South Island but not within a 100km radius of the Christchurch City Centre.
2. Te Ika-a-Māui is $2000 + GST as a partial waiver from the total fees of Parts 2 and 3 of the Master of Contemporary Education, for students who, at the time of their enrolment are based in the North Island but not within a 100km radius of the Auckland City Centre.
3. A limited number of these discounts are available for the January 2020 intake only. Discounts for future intakes are not guaranteed and will be at the sole discretion of The Mind Lab.
4. To avail this discount, students must submit a completed application for enrolment into the Master of Contemporary Education by the start date of the relevant intake.
5. The discounts will be allocated on a 'first in, first served' basis, based on the completion of enrolment requirements and confirmation of acceptance into the programme following the interview process.
6. Discount allocations are subject to change. A final decision on allocations is at the sole discretion of The Mind Lab.
7. This discount may not be used in conjunction with any other scholarship or discount.
8. In case of withdrawal at any stage or failure to complete the programme, the recipient will be liable for the normal withdrawal cost based on full, non-discounted fees to The Mind Lab.
9. The discount will not show on the online application but will be applied to the invoice once the student has submitted their application and has been accepted into the programme following the interview process.
10. The discount will be applied at invoicing, as a sum of $1000 per year for part time students, or a total sum of $2000 for full time students.
